Medan, Sumatera Utara

Currently in my 4th semester majoring in Information Technology at Del Institute of Technology, I'm transitioning towards my 5th semester and passionate about developing skills in programming languages and testing software product. Through project assignments, I've also gained experience using design tools like Figma, CorelDraw, and Photoshop, as well as several testing tools such as Selenium, Katalon, and others. I am eager to develop my skills and make a positive contribution to the company.
